

Silverado Canyon Flood Pictures in Orange County California

My Top Three

Recently remodeled kitchen on Sleepy hollow destroyed by mudslide. – Ken Campbell
<http://www.karenlake.com/press/mhh/04.jpg>

72 Mormon Helping Hands Stand Side by Side passing buckets to get mud to the truck.
<http://www.karenlake.com/press/mhh/11.jpg> - Karen Lake

Silverado Canyon resident creates chute for volunteers to use to get mud from top of the house to wheel barrow. – Karen Lake
<http://www.karenlake.com/press/mhh/18.jpg>

All Pictures 1-22 click here

<http://www.karenlake.com/press/mhh/>

Pictures taken by Karen Lake unless it is noted as Ken Campbell.

Introduction Pictures:

1. View of the beautiful canyon – Karen Lake
2. Homemade parking sign directing volunteers – Karen Lake
3. On Feb 8th, more than 150 volunteers made for limited parking. Volunteers from the Church of Jesus Christ and Calvary Chapel congregated at the community center and then large trucks transported the volunteers up the hills to work on the houses. – Karen Lake

Sleepy hollow: Connie Carter's House

January 8th

4. Recently remodeled kitchen on Sleepy hollow destroyed by mudslide – Ken Campbell
5. Connie Carter's new granite and cabinets after flood. – Ken Campbell
6. Dishwasher not cleaning many dishes - Ken Campbell
7. Sleepy hollow home with mud up half way up the side of the house – Ken Campbell

February 5th

8. Strong man works as part of bucket line getting mud out of the house. Karen Lake
9. Progress easy to see with mud line on the side of house. Karen Lake
10. Inside of kitchen after one month of volunteer work. Karen Lake

Bucket Line

11. 72 Mormon Helping Hands Stand Side to Side passing buckets to get it to the truck – Karen Lake
12. Elder English bends over with shovel filling bucket with mud for the bucket line. – Karen Lake
13. On Feb 5th, the mud was less messy but harder to move than at the beginning of January. – Karen Lake
14. Mormon Elders from Rancho Santa Margarita, Lake Forest, and Foothill Ranch are at the end of the bucket line in the truck. – Karen Lake
15. Mormon Elders dress in military khaki ready for a messy job – Karen Lake

Hideaway Street: Calvary Chapel

16. Justin Slorach, Glenn Brooks, Don Marthens & Mark Franklin from Calvary Chapel work on Lori Dixon's house. – Karen Lake
17. Beautiful Garden falls down hill into Lori Dixon's house – Karen Lake

Homemade Chute: Creativity of Residents

18. Silverado Canyon resident creates chute for volunteers to use to get mud from top of the house to wheel barrow – Karen Lake
19. Mormon Helping Hands volunteers rotated who was in the front near the chute. The volunteers said the mud was heavy and it was hard to empty so they needed to take turns. – Karen Lake
20. Jim Whitesides, Mormon Helping Hands Emergency Response Director for Orange County, shows where mud line started on the week of the floods. – Karen Lake
21. Mormon Helping Hands volunteers pass buckets to the front chute from the backyard. – Karen Lake
22. Mormon Helping Hands Women from Huntington Beach work in backyard filling buckets. – Karen Lake